

1 Timothy

Introduction: This letter was written to Timothy in A.D. 64 or 65, after Paul's first imprisonment in Rome. Paul was apparently released from prison for several years, during which time he revisited many churches in Asia and Macedonia. When Paul and Timothy returned to Ephesus, they found widespread false teaching in the church. Paul had warned the Ephesian elders to be on guard against the false teachers who would inevitably come after he had left. (Life Application Bible, p. 1862)

“Timothy was born in Lystra of a Greek father and of a Jewish mother, he was brought up in the Jewish faith and was taught the Scriptures from childhood. Paul made him an understudy in his second journey (Acts 16:1–3), and Timothy remained with him ever after. He shared in the evangelization of Macedonia and Achaia and aided Paul during the three years of preaching at Ephesus, where he became thoroughly acquainted with the city and with the needs of the local church.” (Merrill C. Tenney, New Testament Survey, p. 334)

Purpose

1 Timothy provides a glimpse of life inside a fledgling, first-century church. Paul writes to address a young pastor, Timothy, who must handle a series of issues, which threatened the health of this church.

Our Bible study is not over until we apply what we have learned to our everyday lives. And lest we underestimate the value of this last step, remember that in God's eyes it is the person who does not just know His Word, but also obeys His Word that truly loves Him (see John 14:21).

1. What part of the lesson stood out most to you and why?

2. What area of your life has been most affected by what you've learned this week?

3. After praying to God for conviction and insight, what concrete changes do you feel you should make this week?

4. What exactly will you do differently this week than last week—get specific and be realistic!

5. Is there someone you know who needs to hear the truths you have learned this week? Will you pray and ask the Lord for boldness and love to share it with that individual?
